A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,

BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE,

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 540 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathanial Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Charleston, S. C.; the Siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period, and that there was no work to supply its place, it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

PRICE.—Handsomely bound in Cloth, $4.00.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1869.

PERJURY AND LYING.

These are horrid vices, yet, they seem common, and conventional, to the party now in power in North Carolina. In every branch of the government, you find, not lying, but perjured men. These two vices, seem necessary to carry on this radical administration. We have, heretofore, shown how the Governor and the Judges of the Supreme Court, swore to support, first, the government of the United States, and then, the government of the Confederate States, and how they now, vie with each other in "making treason odious." Our Federal Judge, Brooks, because he is so little before the people, has escaped political annihadvertion, and he should now, go unnoticed, but for the fact, that he is the great patron and supporter of the Standard office, and that is the great fountain head of all the political corruption of the State. We do not know that Judge Brooks, like Judge Reade, and others of the Judiciary, swore to support both governments, but we have heard it from one who profess to know, that his Honor, served the Confederacy for three or four months, as captain in the militia, received his pay in Confederate money, and gave to a neighbour's son, as a present, a fine horse, bridle and saddle, which he rode into the cavalry service, on the Confederate side; and then to hold his present place, as a Federal Judge, he took the test oath, swearing he never gave "aid, countenance or encouragement to the rebellion." We think Judge Brooks, a man of better conscience than Solicitor Starbuck. Starbuck is as able bodied as his successor, Judge Cloud, but he looks upon perjury as no crime, or at least, a venial sin. This hero of false swearing, was with Judge Dick, Judge Thomas, and Governor Holden, in the secesh convention of 1861. He signalized himself in that body, first, by offering an ordinance, to increase the bounty of soldiers, and last by voting for Governor Holden's resolution, thanking the ladies for their aid, support, zeal and devotion, to the Confederate cause.

Starbuck, to hold his place as District Attorney of the United States, had to take the test oath, and, like Judge Brooks, he did not hesitate about it. The Grand Jury of the Federal Court, held in this city, presented Solicitor Starbuck, for perjury, and Judge Brooks, white-washed him. The Court failed to order a bill to be drawn against Solicitor Starbuck.

Not many Courts since, a young man was indicted for perjury, in returning the amount of whisky he had made, his father promised to pay 150 dollars to get him out of the scrape, as he expressed it; he paid the 150 dollars and cost, and there the matter ended; guilt was confessed on the docket, but no judgment prayed. Well, the least we can say of it is, it looks like tempering justice with mercy. The Court dealt lightly with Starbuck for his foul perjury, why should not Starbuck deal lightly with others for similar offences? But who cares for a little erratic swearing? Not Governor Holden, for he has confidence in Starbuck, notwithstanding his soul is stained with perjury. Yes, he has as much confidence in Starbuck as he has in Treasurer Jenkins or Auditor Adams. He said solemnly in a message to the Legislature, he had confidence in the Treasurer. He said solemnly to the Supreme Court, "d—d if my officers go to jail," when the Court had ordered Auditor Adams there for contempt.

Starbuck justifies his perjury in this wise: "He was always opposed to the war. His resolution to increase the bounty of soldiers was not aid and comfort to the rebellion but mercy to suffering humanity.—As to Gov. Holden's resolutions of thanks to the ladies, that was only a matter of gallantry, everybody knows Gov. Holden was opposed to the war."

The best defence we have ever heard for Judge Brooks or Solicitor Starbuck, was made expressly by one of their charitable friends, who swore that neither Brooks of Starbuck had capacity to comprehend the inconsistency of their conduct. This, at all events, is a charitable view with which to look upon Starbuck's plain, palpable, unmistakable perjury.

TREASURER JENKINS AND THE CARPET BAGGERS.

Whatever may be said of Treasurer Jenkins's financial ability, or whatever may be thought of his complicity with, or connivance at, the "Ring" transactions and bond frauds, there is one thing that may be mentioned, and that is, that almost every thing and every measure he has ever recommended has been opposed or neglected by his party in the Legislature, and especially has this opposition to his recommendations been manifested by the carpet-bag wing of his party. Why this is and has been so, we are unable to conjecture, whether for want of confidence in the Treasurer on their part, or want of congeniality with them on his, can be developed, if at all, only by time and circumstance. But the fact exists, as will be seen by reference to his reports and the action of the Legislature thereon.

HE BLEW HIS HORN IN CAUCUS.

The people may not be generally aware of the fact that all the legislation of the State is first concocted and resolved upon in secret League and caucus meetings before it is brought into the Halls of the Capitol, but such is the truth.

Last week, at one of these league meetings in the Capitol to which none but the faithful were admitted, Mr. Harris, of Franklin, was ruled out, because, like Gen. Dockery, he is in favor of investigation.

There was strong talk, also, of ruling out Maj. Smith, President of the North Carolina Railroad, not for trying to lease the Road, but for other causes, among them his Salisbury speech at the Stockholders' meeting. The Major's speech to the caucus, as it reached us on the street, was somewhat after this wise:

"I, Mr. Speaker, am to be sacrificed—and for what? I am to be decapitated—and why? Because, like a free-born citizen, I spoke in Salisbury, and in my speech did not speak approvingly of all things done by the Legislature.

"Mr. Speaker, Joe Turner reported that speech, and not Wm. A. Smith. It is true I did not correct it at the time it was published as my speech, so, whether I made it or not, my long silence commits me to the whole speech, as reported by Joe Turner, whom you all know to be no friend of mine or of yours.

"With what other crime am I charged besides the crime of free speech and bold thought? I am to be excommunicated; my birthright as a Republican is to be denied me. The poor privilege of entering this caucus is to be taken away from me, as it was from Harris; because I turned Republicans out of office. Yes, I did it, and I glory in it. Yes, I turned off three Republicans from service on the Railroad—one for stealing five thousand dollars—one for stealing three thousand dollars, and another for stealing one hundred dollars; if this renders me unworthy, let me be counted so!

"I have "fought the good fight" against Dr. Leach, Cloud and Willis Saunders, and by the mercies of Republicans, I shall continue to fight the good fight against Jarvis, Durham, Joe Turner and Balone, the enemies of the Republic and the Republican party.

"What strange madness—what deplorable infatuation has seized upon the party, that they put forward a negro to hunt me down! But yesterday the party would have borne me upon its shoulders in triumph through the streets; to-day, rumors of Billy Smith's perfidity and treason to the party are bruited about! Yes, I am thrustened with the vengeance of the party, because I dismissed rogues from office! The men who denounce me are living on the abuses of the party, which I have dared to denounce. To them I say, answer me, and then traduce to your heart's content."

CONTEMPT.

It will strike no one with surprise that Judge "Jaybird" Jones has declared William Biggs, Esq., disbarred, and by rule of Court forbidden him to practice his profession, as an Attorney at law, in his Court; all because Mr. Biggs, in his paper, the Tarboro' Southerner, called his Honor "A J. B." and spoke of him in such terms as his course and character richly merited.

It is no matter of wonderment to those who have observed the course of the Supreme Court towards the Bar, that this little hopping Jay of the Judiciary should arrogate to himself Supreme Judicial powers and airs, which belong only to Settle and Dick and the Supreme Court.

Mr. Biggs answered very properly, that his remarks, as an editor, were not intended to bring the Court into contempt, but this did not appease the Jaybird; he must assert his dignity! To do this he must punish, and to be sure he was right, he followed the example of the Supreme Court, in full bench, by disbarring Mr. Biggs, as that Court did Messrs. Moore, Bragg, Haywood and a hundred others.

We think it would be better for the Jaybird and Dick to imitate Greasy Sam in all matters of contempt, which seem to be of constant occurrence with the present Judiciary.

Greasy Sam, talking to a member of the Bar, laid down the rule forcibly if not in elegant style: "If any member of the Bar insults me in court, I say, go to jail; if out of court, I say go to hell." Vulgar and inelegant as is the style of the rule, we commend it to Judge Dick, whose observance of it might have saved his honor a knocking down, some days since.

Another objection to this rule is, its resemblence in style to the profane language of Governor Holden, while addressing himself to Chief Justice Pearson on seeing Auditor Adams on his way to jail for contempt of court—"d—d me, sir, Judge or no Judge, court or no court, if one of my officers go to jail until you go over the dead bodies of my militia."

Mr. Biggs is punished for language out of court, while Syd. Bryant, police officer of this city, goes unpunished for actually seizing upon the person of his Honor and taking him to the guard house or city prison. Why this partial administration of the law? Biggs is punished for words written of a Judge out of court, Mr. Bryant collars the same Judge and starts to put him in the city dungeon or prison—and he goes unpunished. The Governor stops a prisoner on his way to jail—and he goes unpunished.

If Mr. Biggs had interfered, and taken from the hands of the Marshall a prisoner, as did the Governor, he would have been severely punished by the Court. "Alas the times!" No Court was ever brought into contempt among the good people of North Carolina until recently; now they are brought into contempt, not by the conduct of Mr. Biggs; not by the conduct of Messrs. Moore, Bragg, Haywood, and the Bar, but by the low, unjudicial bearing of the Judges, themselves, who vainly strive to criminate the Bar as the authors of the degradation and shame they bring on themselves.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. French, a bill to amend Sec. 27, Chap. 7, Revise Code. Referred.

By Mr. Painter, a bill to extend the time for perfecting entries in the County of Jackson. Referred.

By Mr. Malone, a bill to allow Sheriffs to disregard the Homestead and personal property exemptions on executions founded on a judgment for crime. Referred.

Mr. Barnett, for Committee on Corporations, reported upon various bills which were appropriately disposed. Referred.

Mr. Downing arose to a question of privilege in regard to charges in the DAILY SENTINEL that Republicans were clogging the investigation of alleged frauds &c.

He closed his remarks by giving notice that if the Committe of the Whole did not proceed to work at once, he would move to rescind the resolution by which the House resolved to go into the Committee.

Mr. Hodnett replied saying that the Editor of the SENTINEL could manage his own affairs and could take care of himself.—The people of the State were convinced that crime did exist and the action of Republicans in this House did not tend to lull those suspicions. Not only did the people of this State but of other States, all look upon the voting down by the Republican party the proposition to send a Committee to New York, where many startling disclosures could be made, as fostering the claims on the accused parties.

Mr. Downing again took the floor and in his remarks said that the Conservatives of the House were reponsible for the procrastination in this investigation in order that the session might be lengthened out that the Republicans might bear the odium.

Mr. Malone said, the gentleman from Union says that Conservatives on this floor intend to impede investigation, he denounced the statement as a miserable calumny. The resolution to request the Governor to order that no further bonds should be put on the market is in aid of this investigation. It is admitted that frauds have been committed, why not prevent the further commission of fraud. It is obvious that certain members on this floor intend to block investigation. These Presidents will not report—you refuse to request the Governor to report—yes, Directors on this floor refuse to state a single fact. It seems that some "delight in darkness rather than light." What can you tell the people as to the condition of these Roads—nothing—nothing—because, we know nothing. Why not investigate.

By Mr. Pou: A joint resolution that the Public Treasurer be instructed to make no further payment of interest on coupons of the Special tax bonds, until instructed by the Legislature to resume said payment, and that the Treasurer is authorized to use payment of the current expenses of the State, as much of the interest collected on the said special tax bonds, as the exigencies of the Treasury may require. Lies over.

Several other gentlemen arose to questions of privilege in regard to "investigation."

Mr. Durham read a letter from Colonel Robert Cowan, expressing a desire and willingness to appear before the House, at any time, and account for every single cent which had ever been placed in his hands by the State.

Mr. Durham said as this matter of investigation, had assumed a party aspect, that he was forced to say, that the conduct of Colonel Cowan, was in striking contrast to that of other Railroad Presidents who had incontinently taken flight to avoid investigation.

Mr. Seymour, for Judiciary Committee reported upon several bills which were placed upon the calendar.

By Mr. Bauer: A bill to incorporate Watauga Lodge, A. Y. M. Referred.

By Mr. French: A bill to protect citizens of North Carolina who rented United States lands during the war. Referred.

By Mr. Kelly, of Davie: A resolution in favor of S. A. Kelly. Referred.

G. W. Price, colored, presented a petition from James Ashe, of Wilmington.—Referred.

By Thos. Sykes, colored: A bill to extend the corporate limits of Elizabeth City. Referred.

By Wm. Cawthorn, colored: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Warren county to levy a special tax. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Yost, the rules were suspended and the bill to repeal the act requiring the registration of Deeds, was taken up, a substitute reported by the Judiciary Committee was adopted, and the bill passed it second reading.

Mr. Allison moved to amend by striking out "1870" and insert "1871."

The yeas and nays were called, and the amendment was adopted by a vote of yeas 54, nays 31.

Mr. Procter moved to lay the bill on the table.

The motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 6, nays 73.

Mr. Seymour moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until the first Friday after the recess caried.

By Mr. Peck: a bill to amend the charter of the town of Tarboro.

By Mr. Justice: A bill fixing fees of county Treasurers (the bill provides that county Treasurers shall receive 2½ per cent on receipts and 2½ per cent on disbursements on all sums not exceeding $5,000. On all sums over $5,000 on receipts under $10,000, 1 per cent on receipts and disbursements and upon all sums over $10,000 ½ of 1 per sent on receipts and disbursements.)

On motion the rules were suspended and the bill considered.

After a long debate, Mr. Pou moved to lay the bill on the table.

The motion being put to a vote, was adopted yeas 39, nays 38.

The Speaker announced Messrs. Seymour, Sinclair, Gatling, Welch and Candler as the Committee to manage the investigation now pending before the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. French arose to a question of privilege in regard to the SENTINEL making a statement that the Sheriff of New Hanover county was short some $50,000.

On motion of Mr. Peck, the rules were suspended and the bill amending the charter of the town of Tarboro', was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Ames the rules were suspended and the bill extending the corporate limits of Goldsboro', was taken up and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

On motion of Mr. Painter, the rules were suspended and the resolution legalizing the election of township officers in Jackson, was taken up, amended so as to include the counties of Guilford, Caswell, Catawba, Greene, Cherokee and Transylvania, when the resolution was recommitted to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

On motion of Mr. Ashworth, the rules were suspended and the resolution concerning pensions of soldiers of 1812, was taken up and adopted.

On motion, the House adjourned.

THE BENCH AND THE PRESS. We learn from the Tarboro' North Carolinian that Captain Biggs answered the rule for a contempt of Court growing out of an article in the local columns of the Tarboro' Southerner, of which paper Captain Biggs is editor in-chief. His answer was that he published the article referred to as an editor, and not in the character of an attorney; that he had always respected the Bench, and paid His Honor on the Bench that respect due his position as a judicial officer, and that in penning the objectionable article he intended no contempt of Court, and as an attorney does not conceive that he committed a contempt.

Judge Jones ruled otherwise, and the rule debarring Captain Biggs from practicing in his Court was made perpetual.

Such is the record of one of the most high handed and outrageous transactions ever perpetrated in the name and under the authority of law in North Carolina. A man who has brought contempt upon himself and his official position punishes a lawyer for an article in the paper of which he is the editor. He vainly attempts in the violent vindication of the dignity of the Bench to wipe out the recollection of the disgrace he has brought upon it.

"The freedom of the press, says the Declaration of Rights, "is one of the great bulwarks of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained." — Wilmington Journal

A NEW ARRANGEMENT CONTEMPLATED OVER THE RALEIGH RAILROAD.—We learn that it is contemplated next week to commence a new arrangement over the Raleigh & Gaston road which will materially affect the travel coming and going over the North Carolina road. The idea is to have two trains daily over the Raleigh road connecting with the Northern and Southern bound trains at this place—the night train over the Raleigh road to run sleeping coaches in connection with the N. C. Road, with no changing at Raleigh of these coaches.—Such an arrangement will necessarily secure much of the travel that now reaches the N. C. Road over the Danville and Piedmont line. We have heard nothing as to the schedule of the proposed change, but are assured that there is no doubt of the change at an early day.—Weldon News.

THE FAIR, at Tucker Hall was again opened last night. The unpropitious state of the weather was rather against a full influx of visitors, nevertheless the attendance was good.

The SENTINEL office was indebted, yesterday evening, to the Ladies of the Fair for a fine dish of brandy peaches and cake, which went the way of all such things that find their way to a printing office.

The Fair continues the remaining evenings of the week.

MUSIC! MUSIC!—We learn there is a movement afoot, by a number of gentlemen well skilled in music, to get up a new Band in this city, provided sufficient encouragement is manifested on the part of our citizens. There is a Leader ready to undertake the instruction, and the gentlemen who propose to join the Band are all intelligent, enter citizens, and most of them have had experience in Bands heretofore. More anon.

ANOTHER SINNER CONVERTED.—Cousin Phil., whose surname is Hawkins, having long been on the "anxious seat," has, at last, "come through," and been received into full fellowship in the Radical Church.—Yesterday, he appeared under a new high top beaver, and was qualified, at least, as far as Mars Tod could effect the job, and took his seat, without the usual reference of his credentials, the exigency of the case not admitting of the delay such reference would involved.

We suppose cousin Phil. feels, in getting in so late, something like a boy would, whose father wouldn't let him go to muster until after dinner.

U. S. COURT—Wednesday, Dec. 15.—Court met at 10 o'clock. The case continued from yesterday was taken up, State of N. C., use of Antonio Miazza and wife, vs. James Calloway, et. al., plaintiff, called and non suit.

E. L. Reynolds vs. N. Boyden, action of defendant, verdict for plaintiff. Blackmer and McCorkle for plaintiff, Bailey and Moore for defendants. The trial docket was then again regularly resumed and a number of cases disposed of without argument.

The case of C. Dewey assignee vs. W. B. Richardson, No. 201, was next taken up and argued until 2 o'clock, when the Court took a recess until 4 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court met pursuant to adjournment, and resumed the unfinished morning business—case No. 201, Dewey vs. Richardson—Moore, Phillips and Merrimon for Plaintiff. Fuller & McKay, for defendant. Mr. Fuller moved for a continuance until next June Term—and made a very fine argument in behalf of his motion. Case continued until to morrow. Court then adjourned.

It Astounds Everybody That A Colorless, cloudless fluid, like Spring water, should revive the original tint in white, grey or grizzled hair. Yet so it is. PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR is just such a fluid, as limpid and as stainless,—yet it far excels every other dye or coloring liquid ever known, in imparting rich shades of color to grey hair.

MISTAKE.

When carpet bag DAVIS, who cursed one of his lady constituency, calling her a d—d liar, rose to address the Senate, on Wednesday, the Speaker recognized him as the gentleman from Montgomery, to this Davis dissented and the Speaker promptly begged pardon for having called him gentleman and called him Senator. Todd has learned manners from Galloway (colored) who always makes atonement when he does amiss.

IMPROVING.—We see the Standard is to be issued as an illustrated sheet. Yesterday morning it had a cut which we construe as representing the manner in which its proprietor, Gen. Littlefield, left Raleigh to avoid the investigation, namely, by being carried on the back of the editor. We knew he did not go to the depot in the omnibus, but was not aware, until yesterday, that he stood so little "upon the order of his going," as to ride the editor of his own paper. He is represented in the cut as carrying the big box we alluded to his having bought, strapped to his shoulder, and labelled, "save my bacon!" which we suppose is a misprint, it being intended to label the box with the words, "Save my bonds."

The Standard is decidedly improving.

The Standard published the Governor's proclamation for an election in the 8th Senatorial District to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. B. Eaves, and called upon the Republicans to rally &c.—Whereupon the Rutherford Star, (Republican) appeals to that paper in the following terms:

"For the sake of Republicanism do not say a word in regard to the race in these three counties, if you do we are ruined here; we could not elect President Grant for dog-pelter, in these counties if endorsed by the Standard. So please hold still until the election is over, and then you can claim that you did it. We will be perfectly content with that course from you."

"TWO DOLLARS A DAY AND ROAST BEEF."

We all remember in the old days, that the promise of "two dollars a day and roast beef," was rung as a charge, on the stump and in the newspapers, from one end of the land to the other, against one of the parties of that day, and it had its effect.—What would have been thought, in those days, of a phrophet who should have predicted the present state of affairs in our capitol, where illiterate numskulls are getting "seven dollars a day and roast turkey," and turkeys selling at three dollars a pair at that!

SICK A-BED.—We regret to learn that our neighbor, Wes. (without the t to it,) is puny. He attempted a pun yesterday, on the name of this Local, in connection with Williamson's new slate roof, and the effort was too much for him. Don't try any other than dry wit, neighbor, it is the only kind suited to your constitution. Pike gets off enough poor wit for the Standard, without your adding to the stock, any how.

For the Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Sir. In your issue of the 15th inst., you have a notice in regard to the Sheriff of Wake County; and the taxes of the county: In which you are kind enough to state that there must be a mistake in the statement made in the Senate by the man from Beaufort. The remarks of the gentleman has ruffled me terribly. I should not feel hurt to such a degree but for the divine source the remarks came from. It is terrible to be launched at by a divine that has torn off his clerical cloth and pitched into the "dirty pool of politics." The condition of the taxes of Wake county are as follows: Total amount of State and County taxes, eighty-five thousand dollars. State taxes, fifty-two thousand. Total amount of taxes collected up to date, fifty-seven thousand dollars. Total amount of State taxes collected up to date thirty seven thousand dollars. Amount paid State Treasurer thirty-eight thousand dollars. Amount of taxes remaining on the books at present not paid, twenty-eight thousand dollars.

You can see, Mr. Editor, by examining the following laws, to wit: "According to the provisions of the act now in force for the collection of revenue, the Board of County Commissioners are required to present the tax list to the Sheriff by the third Monday in June, but, owing to the decision of the Supreme Court in regard to the Railroad tax, declaring a part of said tax unconstitutional, the list had to be revised, which made it impossible to get the books ready before about the 1st of September.—The sheriffs are then required to keep the list in their office during the month of September to receive the taxes. After the first day of October, they are required to proceed to collect the taxes by distress, but cannot enforce the collection of taxes by distress or otherwise until after that day. By the 2nd paragraph of the 27th section of chapter 74, acts of '68 '69, provision is made for the sale of real estate for the payment of taxes, when the party owing the taxes has no personal estate which can be levied on for that purpose.

But by the 26th chapter of said acts ratified the 13th day of April 1869, it is provided that in all cases of levy on lands for taxes, the Sheriff shall return the levy to the next Term of the Superior Court of the County in which the levy is made for the purpose of condemnation &c.

In my County there has been no Superior Court held since the 1st of October, there by making it impossible for me to collect by distraint, under the present system. But still, the Senate have passed a resolution allowing the Auditor to amerce all the Sheriffs in the State at the Special term of the Superior Court of Wake County which meets the last Monday in this month.

You can see the great injustice, giving the Auditor the power to amerce, and at the same time referring the power to Sheriffs to collect. The amount of taxes required to be collected, being many times larger than ever before collected, and the scarcity of money and inability to pay, has greatly retarded collections. The number of insolvents is greatly increased, and the increase of the number of tax-payers who have no property either real or personal, have increased the difficulties to an extent never before known. The people of my county are paying up as promptly as it is in their power to do. The failure of the crops the present year, have reduced a large portion of the farmers to great straits in order to meet their tax, they being much heavier than ever before. But taking all things into consideration, I think they have done remarkably well, and I am certain will be able, by the latter part of January 1870, to pay all the taxes that they owe.

Respectfully, yours &c.,
T. F. LEE,
Sheriff, Wake Co.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. KINCHY AND MENDEN-HALL, REPRESENTATIVES OF DAVIDSON COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN:—A number of us have concluded to write you a few words. We are your friends and did what we could for you at the election. We learn that you both favor a law to prevent the selling of any spirits, or making any, within three miles of Silver Hill Mine. Such a law would be much against our interest, and we know it would be much against the interest of several men who expect to make brandy next year, and if they make it, they ought to be allowed to sell. The morals of Silver Hill are better now than before the war. You both know that such a law is unnecessary. Men that use spirits can get it, any way; they can get it every day by the Company's teams, from Lexington, from any of the groceries there. We think no christian hearted men would be induced by fine presents to enact such a law, when, at the same time they know it to be contrary to the wish of their constituents.

Your acts will be remembered in the future. If Long does get a nice present from the Company, it will not elect him again.—We are not surprised at this.

We hope you will look to our interests in this matter. Capt. Johnston and the Company did not elect you. It was never necessary to pass such a law before. We pray that God may cause you to see your error; and get Long to pray for you also.

We shall undoubtedly have to leave the party if you do not do better. Ask the Governor what he thinks of such a law.

MANY CITIZENS
around Silver Hill.

"In the town of Rutherfordton a paper called the Star is published. One of its editors is crazy because he was'nt appointed engrossing clerk."—Raleigh Standard.

Yes, and in the city of Raleigh there is a paper called the Standard, and the name which appears as Editor is a hired writer for a man who does not publicly deny that he is a SWINDLER, nor do we believe he can. If he can let him refute the affidavit published in the Old North State a few weeks since from a Florida man.

It is easy to cry crazy, &c., &c., but before we would write at the biddings of a man whose character is such as MILTON SWINDLER LITTLEFIELD, we would prefer to take up our abode in the Penitentiary for a term of years.—Rutherford Star, (Republican)

SENATE.—Sumner presented a petition from the recent colored laborers' convention, praying a division of the public lands in the South among them, and opposing the motion to adjourn from 20th instant to 5th January saying we had Georgia, Virginia and the French cable pressing for consideration.

Sumner—Least said about that the better.

Brownlow had a personal explanation read from the Clerk's desk. Speaking of Stokes and Butler he said, they were two "pretty pinks" to be assailing him. That the rejection of the 15th amendment by the Legislature was an act of perfidy.

Every thing is ready for the departure of the Spanish gunboats.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or admixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell when burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. It is now burned by thousands of families and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. A MAGNIFICENT

NORTH CAROLINA PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE PLANTATION KNOWN AS "OAKLAND," (formerly the property of Dr. Samuel Karr,) situated in Rowan County, N. C., on the Lincolnton Road, 11 miles from Salisbury, and about 8 miles from China Grove station on the North Carolina Railroad.

This Plantation is one of the most desirable in the State, and in its improvements unsurpassed. It contains 1587 Acres, one-half cleared, the large quantity of Meadow and Bottom Land, over 500 Acres under cover of a Mill Pond for fifty years. The residue is heavily timbered with splendid Oak and Hickory.

The Family Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15,000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 yards from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Flour mill with three runs of Stone; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond on the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building rests on a story of rock foundation, has two stories and a half of brick above—with a Wall on the first story two feet thick, and could be converted into a factory. The business is well situated, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds of the best subsoil of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Enniss, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown, Mock & Co., H. B. Holmes, Esq., or Col. R. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm. Ihley, Esq., Dr. E.

Highly Concentrated Compound FLUID EXTRACT OF

Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

Prepared Solely by

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.

ORGANIC CHEMIST,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 10, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect your obedient servant,

R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

Princess Anne Court House, Va Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public.

Yours, truly;

T. F. FENTRESS, M. D.

KOSKOO cures SCROFULA IN ITS WORST FORMS. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also on my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c., A. W. MILLS.

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of debility—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator.

Yours, &c.,

JOSEPH P. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son had received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo IS AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY cures. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS. M. E. A. NELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diseases of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. B. MEARS.

No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pasquotank, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I began to use and taking Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE, Norfolk, Va., Oct. 28, 1869.

DR LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of KOSKOO RESTORED ME TO HEALTH.

Yours, truly,

J. G WOMBLE.

From Rev. W H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PETERSBURG, Va., October 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression.

W. H. CHRISTIAN.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY, Prin. Chas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. E. OLDS, Mount Olive, Oct. 30, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 26, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. H. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction.—G. W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1855, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. DUDGEN, Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VAUGHAN Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this state of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Carlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained. Dr. WM. B. HARREL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—W. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—SPENCER IVEY, Prin. Asburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. OBERCHAIN, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school.—DAVIES. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOX, President Stanlonsburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson, Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Bangham, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National Series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MARRATT, Chatham County, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 23, 1869

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the state.—Statesville American, 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.
